

National ADA Symposium

May 12-14, 2008

America's Center

St. Louis, Missouri

The most comprehensive conference available on the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Who Attends:

People with Disabilities & Family Members
Advocates
State & Local Govt. Officials
Architects
Building Code Officials
Disability Organization Staff
Centers for Independent Living Staff
Attorneys
Service Providers
Employers
Human Resource Specialists

Featuring:

Symposium attendees will have the unique opportunity to participate in an Access Board town meeting. Town meetings are used by the Access Board to gain public input and recommendations that influence future federal policy. Airport access will be the focus of the meeting along with a general presentation by the Access Board.

www.adasymposium.org
1-800-949-4232

For a decade, the National ADA Symposium has brought together nationally recognized experts on the ADA including representatives from the key federal agencies involved in the ADA: U.S. Access Board, Dept. of Justice, EEOC and the Dept. of Labor; to provide dynamic, intensive training on all areas of the ADA and related disability laws. The quality of training, coupled with a wide array of sessions, has earned the National ADA Symposium the reputation as the premier conference on the Americans with Disabilities Act.

EXPO AT Fair

An EXPO of disability products and services and an Assistive Technology Fair will be held concurrently in the America's Center expansive Expo Hall.

The National ADA Symposium is hosted by the DBTAC-ADA Centers, a project of the National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research (NIDRR).